§4.3.2 – Lodged Ball

§4.3.2.1 – A ball that is lodged in a player's equipment is out of play.

§4.3.2.2 – Possession is forfeited by the team that had the ball lodged in their equipment and play will restart according to §4.2.3.

§4.4 – Scoring

§4.4.1 – A point is awarded when the entire ball crosses the entire goal line after originating from a 'shot'. A shot is defined in §5.2. A shot may subsequently deflect off of any surface except the broad side of an offensive player's mallet head or the shaft of an offensive player's mallet before crossing the goal line and be deemed valid. A player may not actively direct the ball across the goal line using their body or bicycle.

§4.4.2 – A point will also be awarded when the entire ball crosses the entire goal line resulting from any action on the ball by a defending player. These are known as "own-goals."

§4.4.2.1 – If an offensive player shuffles the ball according to rule §5.3 and the ball then contacts a defender's stationary equipment and crosses the goal line, no point is awarded. Own-goals must meet the requirement of "primary action" by the defender.

§4.4.3 – Following a point, the team that was scored on will have possession of the ball.

§4.7.3 – A team is granted two time outs per game of 2 minute duration each. A team is allowed to take these time outs sequentially if more time is needed at the end of the first time out.

§4.7.4 – At the expiration of the timeout, or when the team which called for the timeout declares they are ready, the game will resume according to §4.1.

§4.7.5 – If the Referee deems that mechanical issues requiring repair on a player's bike or equipment were caused by the opposing team, they will grant a timeout to the team for up to 5 minutes. This will not count against the team's timeout allotment.

§4.8 – Shifted Goal Position

§4.8.1 – If the goal shifts position, the goal line remains the defining threshold the ball must cross for a goal to be awarded.

§4.8.2 – The Referee will stop game play if they determine that the position of the goal has shifted greatly enough to inhibit a Goal Judge's ability to determine whether a point is scored or it is apparent that the shifted position of the goal is affecting game play.

§4.8.2.1 – If the Referee deems the goal shifted position due to circumstantial game play rather than intentional action by a player, possession is granted to the team that has possession or last had possession of the ball.

§5.2.2 – Actively directing the ball into the net with any part of the body or bike is not a shot.

§5.2.3 – A shuffle (see §5.3) is not a shot.

§5.3 – Shuffling

§5.3.1 – A shuffle is defined as any contact between a broad side of the mallet head and the ball.

Ball-jointing that extends beyond this time limit will result in a ball turnover.

§5.5 – Scooping

§5.5.1 – A scoop is when the ball is cupped in any hole in the mallet head using centripetal force and is maneuvered, whether it be on the ground or in the air.

§5.5.2 – Scooping is permitted.

§5.6 – Carrying

§5.6.2 – Carrying with the body is defined as using a hand, or other part of the body, to shoot, pass, or otherwise deliberately redirect or add momentum to the ball. If a player uses their hand to “catch” the ball out of the air they must immediately drop the ball on the ground below the point at which the ball was caught.

§5.6.3 – Carrying is not permitted and will result in a ball turnover, subsequent carrying penalties can escalate if the referee deems them to be excessive.

SECTION 6: PENALTY FORMAT

PENALTY PROCEDURE

§6.1 – Severity of Infraction

§6.2 – Delayed penalties

§6.2.1 – All penalties listed in §7 – §10 will be called by the Referee according to the delayed penalty procedure.

§6.2.2 – If the team in possession of the ball commits an infraction of the rules, the Referee immediately signals the stoppage of play and issues the penalty.

§6.2.3 – If the team not in possession of the ball commits an infraction of the rules, the referee delays the signal for stoppage to issue the penalty until the team to be penalized gains possession, or if the ball goes out of play, or if the team with possession allows the ball to cross from the offensive half back into their defensive half. This is known as a “delayed penalty”. The fouled team is considered to have “advantage”.

§6.2.3.1 – If the penalty occurs on the defensive half of the team who gains “advantage”, the delay will remain until they, or the ball, cross into the offensive half and back into the defensive half.

§6.2.3.2 – No point will be awarded to the team to be penalized during a delayed penalty except own-goals by the team on the advantage.

§6.2.4.1 – If the team to be penalized subsequently fouls the opponent while on the delayed penalty but the non-penalized team maintains possession, the delayed penalty will continue and the penalty will increase in magnitude by one degree.

§6.2.4.2 – If the non-penalized team subsequently fouls the opponent while on the delayed penalty, the play is stopped by the Referee and the game will restart according to the procedure outlined in §6.3.

§6.2.5 – The penalty is not called if a point is scored against the team to be penalized during the delayed penalty, unless the referee intends to issue a minor, major or game misconduct penalty.

§6.3 – Coincidental penalties

§6.3.1 – Coincidental penalties are simultaneous penalties assessed to a member of each team.

§6.3.2 – Coincidental penalties at the severity level of a ball turnover will cause a stoppage in play and restart per §4.1. Coincidental penalties that would be assessed as a minor, major or game misconduct will result in a 2-on-2 situation for the prescribed duration of the penalties assessed.

§6.3.3 – After coincidental penalties are assessed, a start will occur per §4.1, with the exception that each team has two players on the court instead of three.

§6.3.4 – On-court play will remain 2-on-2 for the duration of the coincidental penalties, regardless of points scored during this situation.

§6.3.5 – When the time for the coincidental penalties expires, the third player from each team will tap-in at center court and rejoin play. No stoppage of play will occur.

§6.5.2.2 – The penalty expires if the team that has player-advantage scores a point. Play will restart according to §4.2.3.

§6.5.2.3 – If the penalized team is assessed an additional penalty, a restart will again occur as in §6.5.2. On-court play will remain 3-on-2, with the duration of the player-advantage extended to account for the subsequent penalty assessed.

§6.6 – Major Penalty

§6.6.1 – Any infraction listed in §7 – §10 that is overtly dangerous or reckless in nature will result in a 2-minute player-advantage penalty.

§6.6.2 – The penalty will be called according to §1.1.9.3. Possession will go to the fouled team and the game will restart according to §4.2.3 with the following exception:

§6.6.2.1 – The player who commits the infraction will be removed from the court to serve the 2 minute penalty. They will rejoin play and tap-in without a stoppage of play at the expiration of the penalty.

§6.7.2 – If necessary to avoid escalation, the Referee will immediately stop game play to end the altercation. Otherwise, the penalty will be called according to §1.1.9.3. Possession will go to the fouled team and the game will restart according to §4.2.3 with the following exception:

§6.7.2.1 – The offending player will be removed from the court for the remainder of the game and their team will play with 2 players.

§6.7.2.2 – Following the issuance of a game misconduct penalty, the offending player is subject to tournament ejection based on review by the tournament organizers.

§6.7.3 – If the penalized team is assessed an additional timed penalty, a restart will again occur as in §6.7.2. The penalized team will now have a single player on the court, with a second player serving their major or minor penalty according to §6.5 or §6.6.

§6.7.4– Two game misconduct penalties issued to a team in one game will result in a forfeited game by that team. The offending team is subject to tournament ejection based on review by the tournament organizers.

§6.8 – Awarded Score

§6.8.1 – An infraction against a player in possession of the ball and facing an undefended goal that prevents them from scoring will result in a point being awarded to the fouled team by the Referee.

§6.8.1.1 – No subsequent penalty will follow the awarded point for infractions that would have resulted in the issuance of a ball turnover or minor penalty. If the infraction against the player would have resulted in the issuance of a major penalty or a game misconduct penalty, it will be enforced on the impending restart.

§6.8.2 – Play will resume according to §4.2.3 with the fouled team retaining possession.

SECTION 7: TECHNICAL PENALTIES
